

Christus Victor!

Isaiah 53 Series – Part 3

Scripture text – Isaiah 53:10-12

Introduction

- Isaiah 53 is 1 of 4 “Songs of the _____” in the book of Isaiah.
- This particular song is a prophecy concerning the _____ & _____ of the Servant, whom we know to be Jesus Christ.
- Verse 10 continues Isaiah’s prophecy of how the nation of Israel will one day deeply _____ their rejection of the Servant.
- In verses 11 & 12, the LORD himself is bearing _____ to the work of his Servant.

Affirmation #1

- After the Servant’s suffering & death, he will be _____.
- The importance of Jesus’ resurrection:
 1. It _____ who he claimed to be
 2. It demonstrates the Father’s _____ of his sacrifice
 3. It provides _____ of our own resurrection

Affirmation #2

- On account of the Servant’s suffering & death, many will be _____.
- Justification is an instantaneous work of God in which he (1) considers our sins _____ and (2) declares us _____ in his sight.
- This happens at the _____ we put our faith in Christ.
- It is based solely on the _____ of Christ:
 1. His _____ obedience (he lived a sinless life); and
 2. His _____ obedience (he submitted to death on the cross).
- What happens is that Christ’s perfect righteousness is _____ to the believer.
- Justification is one of the most _____ doctrines of the Christian faith.

Affirmation #3

- By means of the Servant's suffering & death, he will achieve total
_____.
- The picture in verse 12 is of a triumphant military commander who plunders the _____ and distributes the spoils to his own people.
- By his death, Jesus _____ the powers & authorities (Colossians 2:15).
- Satan can no longer stand before God and bring an _____ against us.
- The understanding that, by his death, Jesus defeated the "powers & authorities" was very prominent in the _____ church. It remains prominent today in _____ & _____ cultures. These cultures tend to be more aware of the existence of good & evil _____.
- The Latin term is _____, or Christ the Victorious One.