

Everyday Worship

Worship Series – Part 9

Scripture text – Exodus 20:2-19 &
Deuteronomy 10:12

Introduction

- In the series thus far, our focus has been on what happens (or ought to happen) when we _____.
- But now, in the finale, we want to _____ our understanding of worship. Worship is how we _____!
- Key point: Everyday worship is expressed through everyday _____ living.
- By “ethics,” we mean the _____, _____ and personal character traits that please God.

Exodus 20

- In speaking to his people (for the first time), God doesn't begin with a _____, but with the _____.
- The 1st 2 commands protect _____'s rights; the remaining 8 protect the rights of _____.
- This is a summary of how God wants his people to _____.

Deuteronomy 10

- In response to Israel's worship disaster, God instructs them on the 5 dimensions of everyday worship:
 1. To _____ God
 2. To _____ in God's ways
 3. To _____ God
 4. To _____ God
 5. To _____ God

A Failure of the Modern Church

- For half a century, American culture has been in the throes of a _____ revolution.
- Even worse is that many of God’s own people are in open _____ of biblical sexual ethics.
- You can make a strong biblical case that sexual sin (on the part of Christians) is uniquely _____ to God.
- In his letter to the church of Thyatira, Jesus called upon the church to _____ of their sexual sin, or they will “suffer intensely.”
- When we repent, God will have _____ on us & freely _____ (see Isaiah 55:6-7).

Series Conclusion

- In heaven, a perpetual song of praise is being sung to the Almighty. In due time, we will _____ that choir. Meanwhile, we express our worship through our _____ living.